

Section 1103 The Application Form

The application for a change in the text shall be made on a form provided by the Zoning Administrator and the filing fee and the disposition of associated expenses shall be the same as stated in Section 1102. The application shall contain a reference to the specific section, subsection, paragraph or item proposed to be changed, as well as exact wording of the proposed change and the reasons therefore.